

Friends of International Education, Inc.
Week of April 15

*****

1. Opportunity to teach English in China THIS SUMMER
2. Summer Opportunities
3. International Foundation for Education & Self-Help
4. Summer English Language Academy

*****

**Join the Friends of International Education TODAY. Individual and organizational memberships are available. For Membership information contact Judy Freund at judy.a.freund@uwrf.edu****

www.friendsofinternationaleled.org

*****

*****

1. Opportunity to teach English in China THIS SUMMER__Beijing Yang Guang Qing International School was built in 1999, co-founded by Beijing Economic Development District Campus School and the Manitoba Canada Department of Education. Yang Guang Qing is a K-12 school. They are looking for teachers to teach one 9-day session teaching students ages 8-14 years old. Included is room, meals, pay, and four days of touring Beijing including: The Forbidden City, Summer Place, Great Wall and shopping. Session One teaching days are July 11-19 (inclusive) followed by four days of touring.__The Yang Guang Qing School school is equipped with advanced teaching facilities including modern multimedia technology. The campus is located on the southern side of Beijing thirty minutes drive from downtown.__For more information contact: Mike Bonnie: sworld@tds.net or _Shanhui Chen: freewisedom@yahoo.co.uk

*****

2. SUMMER Opportunities!!!

The following information is provided by the Wisconsin International Outreach Centers bulletin.

**International Travel Grant for US Teachers

Under the Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program (TEA) the US Department of State and IREX (the International Research & Exchanges Board) announce a competition for middle and high school teachers from the United States to participate in a two-week professional exchange program in Argentina, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Bangladesh, Cambodia, Colombia, El Salvador, Georgia, Ghana, Guatemala, Honduras, India, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Nicaragua, Senegal, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and Ukraine.

Eligible applicants must teach secondary-level (middle or high school), be a teaching professionals with five or more years of classroom experience in disciplines including English as a Foreign Language, English Language or Literature, and social sciences (including social studies, civics, and history), be a U.S. citizens, and able to travel in spring 2010.

The program is fully funded, BUT HURRY—the application deadline is April 27, 2009.

Applications can be downloaded at <http://www.irex.org>

For more information, contact Anne MiIazzo at 202.628.8188 ext 197 or tea@irex.org.

**World Affairs Seminar for High Schoolers: World Hunger & the Food Crisis Program

Institute of World Affairs, Center for International Education, UW-Milwaukee_20 - 26 June 2009 | Carroll University, Waukesha, WI

Encourage your students to join the 2009 World Affairs Seminar! The Institute of World Affairs at UW-Milwaukee's Center for International Education is co-organizing the 2009 seminar, a unique week-long summer program for high school students. This year's seminar will address world hunger and the global food crisis, and will provide an opportunity for students to hear from renowned experts, discuss and simulate key issues, build new skills, and generate action plans at local and global levels.

Scholarships are available! Deadline for application is 31 May 2009.

Please visit www.worldaffairsseminar.org for more information and to apply.

**Global Studies Summer Institute for Educators: Choices for a Sustainable Future_UW-Milwaukee, July 22-24, 2009

This year's Global Studies Summer Institute will examine the concept of sustainability-- how societies are attempting to meet their immediate needs in ways that build community and conserve the environment for future generations. Participants will explore options for a sustainable future from the perspectives of various stakeholders: the scientist, the CEO, the policymaker, the farmer, etc. Educators will find content and resources applicable across the curriculum, from science to social studies. Join us for an interdisciplinary look at preserving the world your students will inherit.

Registration information is available at <http://www.iwa.uwm.edu/>.

Please contact Nicole Palasz at palasz@uwm.edu for more information.

**Bringing Mexico in your Classroom_US-Mexico Partnership in Agriculture, Business, or Social Sciences

Explore issues in your classroom at a global scale; travel to Mexico to learn about sustainable rural development; and help your students develop a broader view of issues such as trade, immigration, food and agriculture by participating in the US-

Mexico Partnership in Agriculture, Business, or Social Sciences grant program. You will participate in a unique spring seminar, a late summer (August) study tour in Mexico, and work with a UW-Madison undergraduate student to develop a new lesson unit for your class. For more information visit www.dairynutrient.wisc.edu/mexico or contact

Michel Wattiaux, UW-Madison Associate Professor, at phone
(608.263.3493).

*****

3. International Foundation for Education & Self-Help

There are lots of educator opportunities with IFRESH (International Foundation for Education & Self-Help), and their International Educators for Africa Program, HeadQuartered in Arizona. For information, visit <http://www.ifesh.org>

_For youth conflict resolution programs in Nigeria, one of IFRESH's programs, visit

http://www.ifesh.org/content.php?section=news&info\_id=169

*****

4. Summer English Language Academy

Summer English Language Academy—English as a second language

The program will take place from July 4 – August 2, 2009 at the UW-Eau Claire

The program includes: eighteen (18) hours of classroom time per week, textbooks and materials, one (1) half day, one (1) full day excursion, and one (1) overnight excursion (in-state), lodging, some meals, among others.

For more information and costs contact ela@uwec.edu or visit our website at <http://www.uwec.edu/ce/langCulture/>.

*****

*****

FRIENDS OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION LIST SERV: If you're interested in getting messages about curriculum, exchanges, or opportunities about international education from time to time, follow the instruction below to subscribe to Friends of Int'l Ed list serve. It's free. If you decide you aren't interested, it's easy to "unsubscribe." The FIE encourages international experiences. The information provided in our list serve is for information only. The FIE does not endorse specific programs.

TO SUBSCRIBE, send an e-mail to < join-frintled@lists.dpi.wi.gov >. Leave everything else blank.