

Friends of International Education, Inc.
Week of April 28.

1. Islam in Russia and the Newly Independent States New and Emerging Migrations
2. Student Travel Opportunity: Journey to Jordan
3. More Teacher Summer Travel
4. FIE website—worth a visit
5. Global to Local Connections in Teaching and Learning

Join the Friends of International Education TODAY. Individual and organizational memberships are available. For Membership information contact Jane Thompson at inter_amigos@yahoo.com **

www.friendsofinternationalead.org

1. Islam in Russia and the Newly Independent States New and Emerging Migrations

23 - 27 June 2008 Lowell Hall, UW-Madison

Sponsored by the Global Studies and the Center for European Studies. The workshop will encompass such topics as new immigrant communities, forced migration, human trafficking, and social adaptation & integration.

Please contact either Mark Lilleleht (Outreach Coordinator, Global Studies) or Csanad Siklos (Outreach Coordinator, Center for European Studies) with questions.

The Center for Russia, East Europe, and Central Asia 210 Ingraham Hall 1155 Observatory Drive Madison, WI 53706 Tel: 608.265.6298

Email: outreach@creeca.wisc.edu

Website: <http://www.creeca.wisc.edu/>

2. Student Travel Opportunity: Journey to Jordan

Arabic Language and Culture

June 15 - August 12, 2008

Application deadline May 8

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

A scholarship program worth $10,000 for high school students.

The University of Wisconsin-Green Bay announces an exciting opportunity for high school students: several days in Washington, D.C. and a seven-week Arabic language institute in Amman, Jordan. A diverse group of 21 students from across the U.S. will be selected to participate in this once-in-a-lifetime experience along with four previous participants (special assistants) and program staff.

Must be age 15-18 when the program begins.

A GPA of 3.0 is required.

No previous Arabic experience required.

Accompanied for the duration of the program by Arabic-speaking American staff who have traveled and worked in the region.

*Participants are responsible for partial expenses. For more information and the application package:

uwgb.edu/intlprojects/jordan.htm

3. More Teacher Summer Travel

More Teacher Summer Travel

Costa Rica: Eco-Ed Tour: June 17th to June 26th

Experience the unique culture and bio-diversity of Costa Rica through interactions with local community members, hands-on activities, and tours and lectures.

Contact Helen Urban for more information at intheosa@yahoo.com
AND remember to check the FIE website for past listings of travel opportunities. Click on the link to newsletter and you will find several past months of the list serve announcements.

4. Check out the website

We have been working hard to update the FIE website. The archives list serve announcements is just one example of this. Please visit our website.

Your suggestions and feedback is always welcome.

5. Global to Local Connections in Teaching and Learning

The Faces of Globalization: Global to Local Connections in Teaching and Learning

Dates: July 23-25 at UW-Milwaukee Hefter Conference Center

Cost: $95 covers all sessions, materials, meals, refreshments and 2 nights lodging (double-occupancy)

Register now for the 2008 Global Studies Summer Institute (GSSI)! The Global Studies Summer Institute is a three-day program for K-12 educators focused on contemporary global issues and their practical applications for the classroom. GSSI features informative presentations by global educators, university experts, and international affairs practitioners, and provides a forum for exchanging ideas and experiences integrating global education across the curriculum. The 2008 program will introduce some of the complex forces that constitute globalization, and examine globalization's impacts on the economy, society, culture, and the environment. Teaching applications across curricular areas and grade levels will be integrated throughout the program.

Registration information and a downloadable brochure are available online at www.iwa.uwm.edu. For more information, please contact Nicole Palasz at palasz@uwm.edu or 414-229-3312.

FRIENDS OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION LIST SERV: If you're interested in getting messages about curriculum, exchanges, or opportunities about international education from time to time, follow the instruction below to subscribe to Friends of Int'l Ed list serve. It's free. If you decide you aren't interested, it's easy to "unsubscribe." The FIE encourages international experiences. The information provided in our list serve is for information only. The FIE does not endorse specific programs.

TO SUBSCRIBE, send an e-mail to < join-frintled@lists.wi.gov >. Leave everything else blank.

TO POST A MESSAGE to 885 globally-interested educators, send your message (NO ATTACHMENTS, please) to Judy Freund at jannfreund@sbcglobal.net Messages are posted, "space and time available" and priority is given to member of Friends of International Education.

TO UNSUBSCRIBE from Friends of International Education list serve, send an e-mail to <leave-frintled>. That's all - nothing else.